PROGRAM

DAY 1: ARRIVAL DAY

Transfer to hotel.

Get settled in and explore on your own if time permits.

DAY 2: GUIDED CITY TOUR AND HIKE

We start the adventure by taking you on a 1½ hour guided city tour of Nuuk. The tour takes you through the three parts of the city, showing its charming history, art and architecture.

We end the city tour at the edge of civilization, where city meets untamed, yet breathtaking wilderness. The hiking trails are quite often formed by reindeer herds, and offer beautiful fjord views, pristine streams and scenic valleys.

The hike starts north along the coastline of Nuuk, where you get a great view of the Nuup Kangia fiord system. In the fiord you'll find a spectacular view of the mountain Sermitsiaq, which serves as the unofficial signature of Nuuk. From there we move inland through Paradise Valley, which lies in between the mountains of Little Marlene and Big Marlene. The landscape is rugged terrain, with clear springs of drinkable water. We take a break here, where you can eat your food and ask our guide questions about local culture and life in Greenland. The trip ends with a beautiful walk along the lake 'Cirkussøen' and to Qinngorput, where you are picked up and transferred back to the city.

DAY 3:

Qooqut Catch 'N' Eat. This tour to the former settlement of Qooqut and its restaurant Qooqut Nuan is worth a trip to Greenland by itself. The restaurant is in the fiord, so you leave Nuuk in a fast-moving cabin boat. On the way to Qooqut you can catch your own dinner, either Atlantic Cod or Redfish.

The fish you catch are prepared for you by the restaurant, and yes, there is a catch guarantee. You will not have to fish long to catch your dinner.

Qooqut Nuan's pier ensures your feet will stay dry, and after a short walk of about 300 meters you arrive at the restaurant, boasting one of the best views of the fjord.

The sailing between Qooqut and Nuuk is majestic in and of itself, and there's chance of spotting whales and other wildlife. You will not regret embarking on this trip of a lifetime.
